

VCOM - The Global Industry Partner of WorldSkill

Who We Are

Vcom Education is headquartered in Guangzhou, China. It is a global vocational education solution service provider integrating production, learning, research and teaching.

By partnering with WorldSkills, VCOM aims to contribute to the global movement that emphasizes the importance of vocational training. This collaboration enables us to engage in advocacy and educational initiatives that promote the value of vocational skills, addressing the global skills gap and ensuring individuals are equipped with the competencies needed for today's dynamic job market.

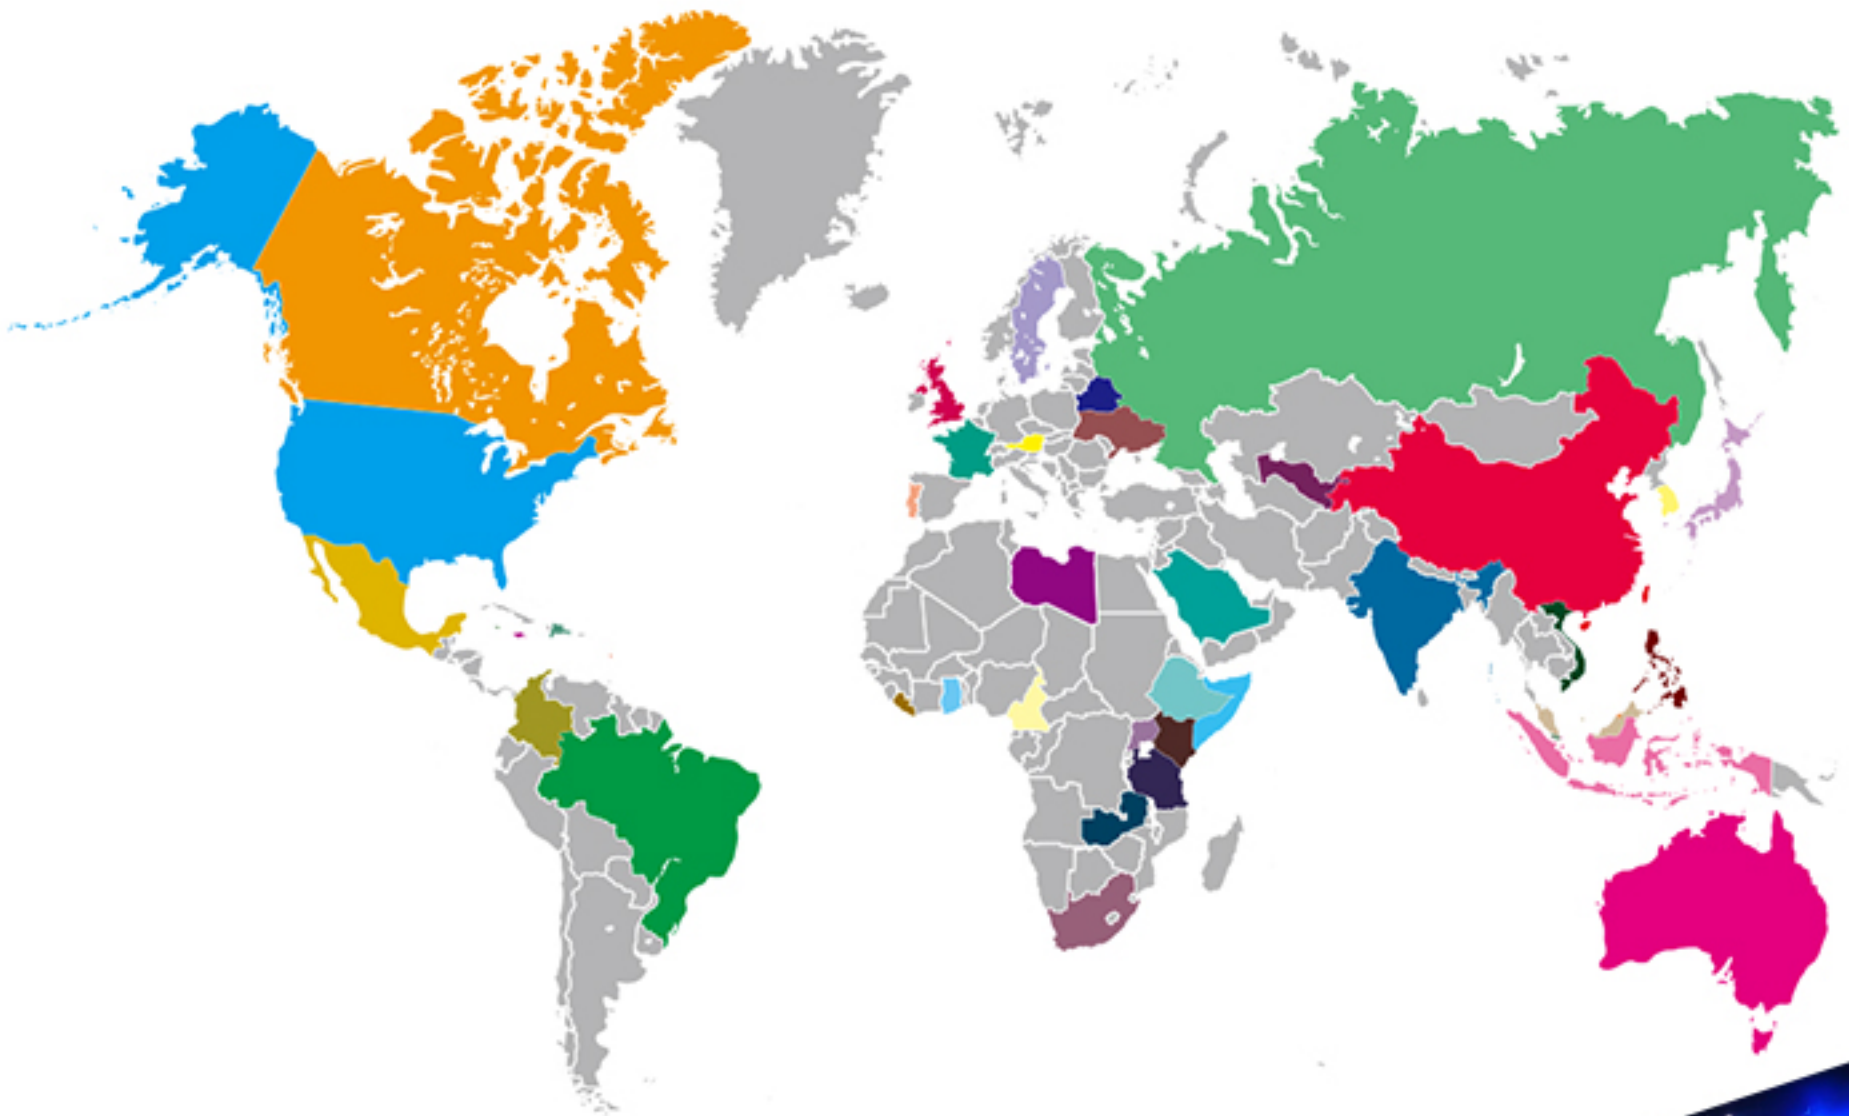

Established training bases in 10 countries.

Provided training services to more than 10,000 people in 41 countries.

265 distributors in 102 countries around the world

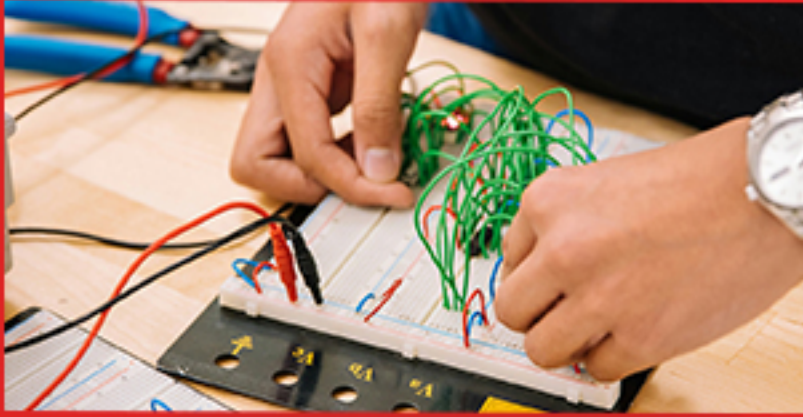

VCOM Sponsored Projects

Information Network Cabling

Health and Social Care

Electronics

Optoelectronic Technology

Find VCOM in World Skill Competition

Vcom is not just a vocational education expert, but also a leading brand of skill competition peripherals

